THAT awful smell that greets your nose
By day and through the night,
Ain't Jockey Club, nor yet Cologne,
Not by a thundering sight,
And what it is just as plain
As falling off a log—
It's double-tussed essence of
That cussed Maysville hog.

Daily Bulletin.

Visitors to the Deering Camp Meeting can get the BULLETIN every day from Master Arthur Glascock, who is our agent at the grounds. It will be distributed promptly on arrival.

REV. J. S. POLLITT will please call at the BULLETIN office.

READ the advertisement of W. M. Dudley, green grocer, on Market street.

THE betting is about even that the jury in the hog case at the next Council meeting will hang.

MATCHES without stamps have appeared in this market, but as regards price, they are the same old article.

LOUISVILLE is said to be flooded with spurious silver coins and, of course, they may be expected to come this way.

It may be interesting to you to know that the street cars have not yet arrived. There is no need of disguising the fact any longer, hence the confession.

OVER fourteen hundred extra copies of the DAILY BULLETIN were sold last week by a single carrier, and on several days the demand for it could not be supplied.

MESSRS. J. W. SPARKS & BRO. yesterday received an order for two dozen unlaundried shirts to go to Texas. This was the result of an advertisement in the DAILY BULLETIN.

If it wasn't for those blasted street railway cars Court street would be open to us as a thoroughfare. As it is we are forced to go up either Sutton or Market streets, and blame the luck!

THE venerable John Rains, who died a few days ago near Aberdeen, between the years 1820 and 1830, was proprietor of one of the three horse ferry boats that plied at this place. Mr. Rains' boat ran between the lower grade and the shore west of Fishing Gut.

THE Western Union Telegraph office is being vastly improved, by means of paint, paper and white-wash. This is the extent of Mr. Gibson's strike and in which he has been engaged for the past ten years. We congratulate him on the successful end and of his fight with the company.

A MEETING of the council will be held next Thursday evening. It will then be seen how many of the honorable board are afraid of the city hog breeders, what number will dodge the question and what members will have the courage to vote for the suppression of an intolerable nuisance.

A CHANCE to make money rapidly is offered in an advertisement elsewhere. The owner of the right to sell in Mason and Fleming counties a patent article that is used in every household desires to dispose of the privilege. The article sells on sight and a good agent can make money rapidly.

BEN. COLEMAN, colored, had his trial Monday, before Esquire John L. Grant, on a charge of carrying concealed, a deadly weapon. The evidence was conclusive as to his guilt, and his punishment was fixed at confinement in the county jail ten days, and the payment of a fine of twenty-five dollars.

IN the show window of Mr. J. Blakeborough's jewelry store may be seen a handsome silver ice picher and dairy cup, the two valued at $50, which he has generously contributed to the fair premium list. Mr. Blakeborough is one of our most liberal business men, and we are glad to know, is prospering as all such men ought.

IN Esquire Hunter's court at Washington, Monday, John Berry, colored, was convicted of the charge of shooting at another without wounding, and fined thirty dollars and costs. Elijah Gifford and York and William Randolph, all colored, were convicted of the charge of resisting an officer, and fined ten dollars each, and costs.

The Grand Circus Royal.

The Oil City, Derrick, of May 15, says: Saturday morning early the Circus Royal pitched its tents on the Seneca street grounds. The rain poured down at about the same time, and kept pouring down with occasional intermissions for breath, all day. But there was a large crowd on hand to see, the street parade, and although the grounds about the tent were soon beaten into a soft pasty mud, and little rivulets of water ran down the canvas upon the spectators, there were large audiences for both afternoon and evening performances. The managers of the circus said this was their sixteenth day of rain, and under the circumstances it could not be expected that the show would be up to its best. Nevertheless, the ring performance was good, and had not the horses been obliged to wade through mud, and the riders and tumblers forced to exercise caution, the audience would have been treated to a first-class exhibition. The circus has good riders, both male and female with it, and among them some of the best in the United States. They have also a trick elephant, which is superior to any other ever shown in the ring. The menagerie contains many rare and curious beasts and their aggregation is all that it is advertised to be. In this respect the people were disappointed; many thinking that because the admission price was low, the show was a cheap one, when, in fact, it is a leading circus and menagerie with popular prices of admission.

Sun Cure for Cholera.

The medicine is so named because the New York Sun, during sickly seasons, keeps the formula standing in its columns. Public institutions distribute it when needed to the poor, and all city druggists keep it on sale as a remedy for colic, dysentery, diarrhea, etc., as well as cholera. It is composed of equal parts of laudanum, tincture of capsicum, tincture of rhubarb, essence of pepper-mint, and spirits of camphor mixed. Dose, from fifteen to thirty drops, in a little water, every fifteen or twenty minutes until relieved, in cholera or colic; other diseases less frequently.

MR. CHARLES MARTIN is the Assistant Superintendent of the Street Railway Company, at present engaged in taking care of the horses and other property of the Company. He is an experienced, polite and accommodating officer, a nephew of the late Confederate Gen. John H. Morgan, and is taking a commendable interest in the new enterprise. He says the Lexington Street Railway Company has offered to loan a couple of its own cars, to be used upon our road until we are supplied, but the gauge at Lexington is 4 feet 10 inches, while here it is 4 feet 8 inches only, and they will not answer. If the company is as fortunate in the selection of its other officers, as it has been with Mr. Martin, our community will have cause to be thankful.

It is earnestly hoped that every one who sees this notice will take pains to inform every one who is interested in Sunday school work, that a County Sunday School Convention will be held in Orangeburg, on Friday, August 3rd. A large attendance of Sunday school workers from all parts of the county is extremely desirable, that they may do good and get good. Experienced Sunday school workers will be present to answer practical questions and give information, and the largest opportunity that a single day can afford will be given for a more thorough development of the working power in this county.

COUNTY POINTS.

TWO-LICK.
Mrs. Elsie Bell has recovered from an attack of malarial fever.
Died, at the residence of his father, July 25th, 1883, Elijah Woodward, in the 27th year of his age. His funeral sermon was preached at Salem church on the 26th, by Rev. W. D. Power, from John XIV. 23-24. His father's house are many mansions, etc. The remarks were appropriate, and were listened to with attention by the vast audience. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church, and left bright evidence that all was well with him, and that he was going to those mansions in glory prepared by the Savior for all who love and serve Him. He was loved by all, as the immense crowd at the funeral would testify.

ANGEL.
Our highly esteemed friend, Mrs. H. H. Long, of Paris, Ky., some years ago visited a wealthy lady in Madisonville, Ohio. In a day or two the wealthy lady missed her pocket book and $200 from her bureau drawer, and strangely enough, jumped to the conclusion that Mrs. Long had stolen the money. A criminal suit was entered against Mrs. Long until she was triumphantly acquitted; and not only so, her lawyer entered a suit for $25,000 damages. On Tuesday of last week an old man named Myers, at Delhi, Ohio, confessed that he had stolen the money and sent for Mrs. Long to come to him, as he is now on his deathbed, and forgive him the cruel wrong he had done to her. Mrs. Long is a gifted and cultured lady, a little crown-jewel of a woman, and has borne her many trials with the meekness of a martyr. We congratulate her and her family, and rejoice over her triumphant rescue from a miserable assault on a stainless character.

A LADY writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for many years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the pains consequent upon female weakness and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary they prove of special service to those who have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicines, and feel their injurious effects. In such cases Ayer's Pills are invaluable.
